

Contents

Preface ix

- 1 Understanding the Traditional University 1
  - Problems and Opportunities 2
  - Assets Worthy of Preservation 7
  - Why Traditional Universities Do What They Do 18
  - Implications for Tuition and Cost Containment 24
  - Business Models and Value Propositions 29

- 2 The Reengineering Challenge 39
  - Flaws in the Academic Business Model 39
  - Building a Reengineering Portfolio 53
  - Implementation Considerations 58
  - Responsibilities for Reengineering 69

- 3 The New Scholarship of Teaching 76
  - Conceptual Underpinnings 78
  - Illustrative Applications 96
  - Two “Outside the Box” Proposals 103
  - Organizing for Improvement 106

- 4 The Cost of Teaching 112
  - Alternative Approaches 114
  - Design of Teaching Systems 123
  - Mezzanine-Level Design 125
  - Modeling from University Transactional Data 132

Extending the Model across the Campus	149
Areas of Application	155

5 Financial Planning and Budgeting 164

Envisioning University Information	166
Coherent Financial Planning	177
Coherent Resource Allocation	186
A Model for Balancing Mission and Margin	199

Conclusion 216

Appendixes	225
A. Teaching and Learning Principles	225
B. Course-Based ABC	230
C. Computer-Aided Course Design	237
D. Incremental Cost of Enrollment	241
E. Smart What-Ifs in the Course-Based ABC Model	244
F. Margin Equivalents for Start-Up Programs	246
G. Extensions to the Mission-Market Trade-Off Model	248
Notes	257
Bibliography	273
Index	000